LEARN THE ART OF BOBBIN LACE

CROSS TWISTERS

The Cross Twisters strive to promote interest in fine old laces and preserve them for posterity. Bobbin lace is lace made by hand with thread wound on bobbins and is still used today to create everything from garments to pillow cases and bookmarks.

WELCOME TO OUR
SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY
MUSEUM GUIDE

Mission
Through the lens of the region's dynamic cultural and natural history, the San Bernardino County Museum develops visitors' appreciation of our diverse regional identity to spark their curiosity, to stimulate inquiry, to challenge their assumptions, and to invite them to contribute to our common future.

Core Values
- Public Service: We exist to better the lives of the citizens in our region.
- Diversity: We promote and celebrate the rich complexity of our region's past, present, and future and provide a welcoming, safe, and intellectually honest space for all people.
- Engagement: We provide our community the opportunity for active participation and refection in our programs and exhibits.
- Integrity: We abide by professional ethics, honesty, and transparency.
- Competence: We take seriously our role as stewards of our region's legacy and are methodical in our collections practices, educational programming, and professional development.
- Responsibility: Our practices promote fiscal and environmental sustainability.
- Collaboration: We believe our community needs can be most successfully met through partnership with individuals and organizations committed to our mission.

Use the San Bernardino County Museum System Program Guide to learn, enjoy your local museums and historic sites, play, and develop an appreciation for you local community.
